THE LUDLOW LION

The Ludlow Lion

1961

Ludlow High School

W.R.P.

"The past is the cause of the present . . ."

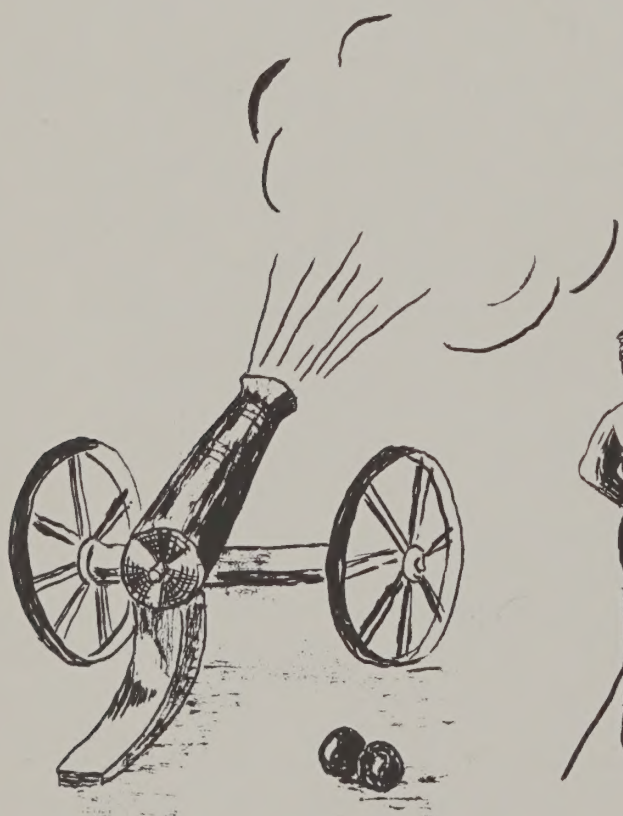

DEDICATION

Our years at Ludlow High School have combined a variety of treasures—the sounds of happy voices, the spirit of good sportsmanship, the formation of our ideals and aspirations. During this time, the faculty has enriched these treasures, which are soon to become pleasant memories. Particularly dear in the hearts of the class of 1961 is one who has given to her students not only of her education and knowledge, but also of her friendship and guidance—MRS. LILLIAN ZIWOT. All agree that she possesses the rare gift of understanding—the ability to guide us through confusing moments as well as through brighter times. Her smile has been a constant inspiration, and her pleasant manner, a cause for admiration. Although her departure has prevented her being with us at one of the most important moments of our lives—our graduation—we can never forget how much she has helped us to reach this goal. Therefore, it is our hope, that by dedicating the 1961 Ludlow Lion to MRS. LILLIAN ZIWOT, we have been able to express just a small portion of our sincere appreciation for her friendly understanding and devotion to this, the class of 1961!

FOREWORD

"The world will little note nor long remember what we say here," but we can never forget what we did here. That great event of one hundred years ago, the Civil War, has had a lasting effect upon the lives of all Americans. In like manner, the events of our high school years will have a lasting effect upon our lives. These years have served as a testing ground, a time of decision. Like our forefathers, we too have struggled to achieve a great goal. We have strengthened our union through four years of work, fun, and friendship.

We can never relive these years in actuality, but we can nostalgically recall the significant events which have made them four unique years in our lives.

It is, therefore, the purpose of this, our 1961 Ludlow Lion, to preserve forever—and in Lincoln's own apt phrases—those "mystic memories" of our high school careers.

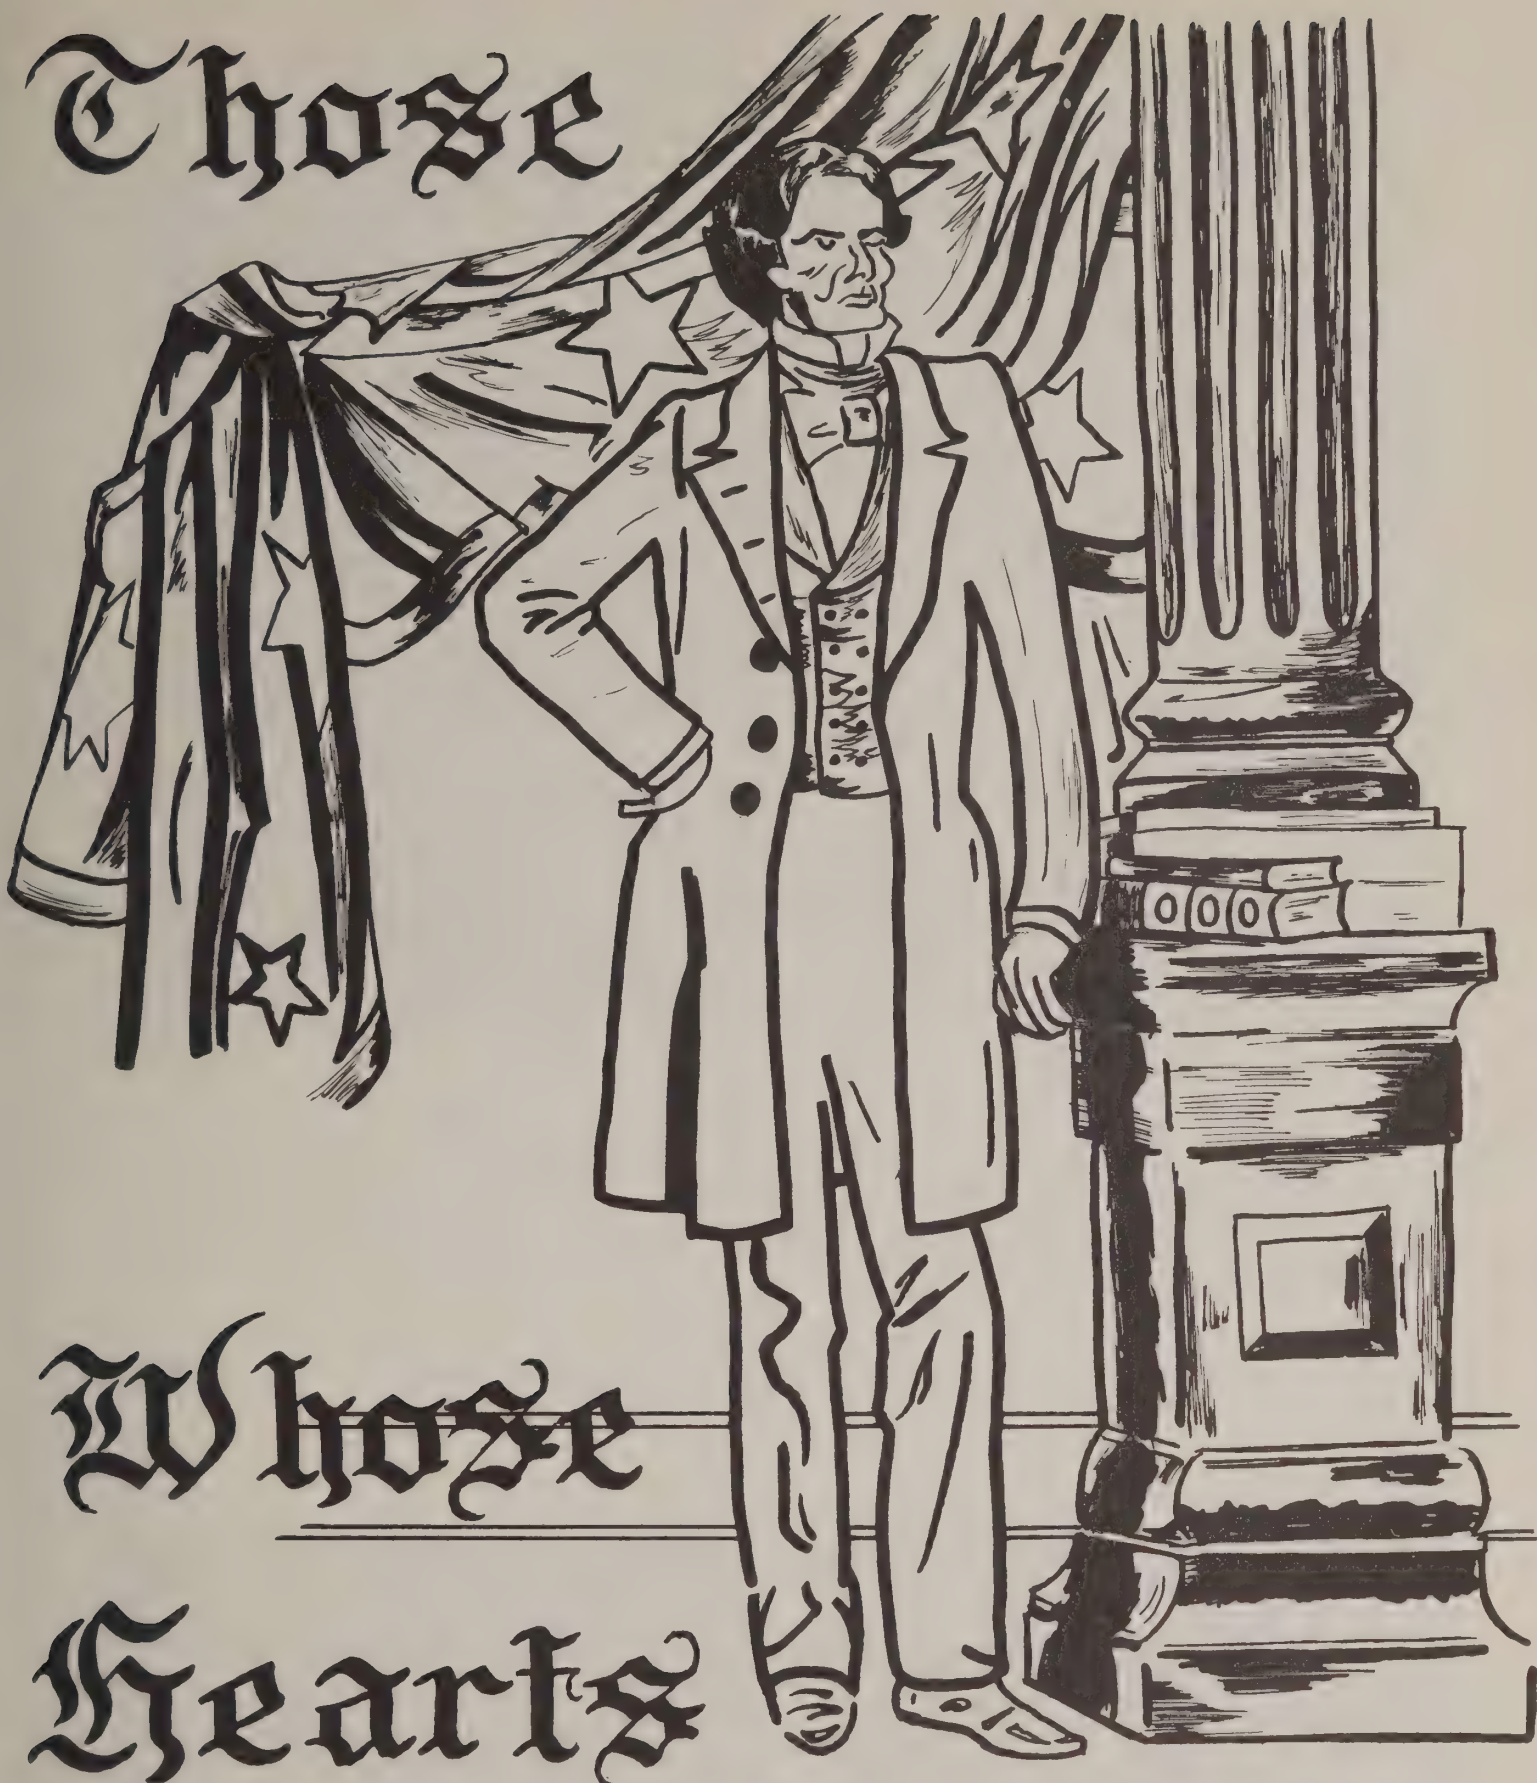

MISS IDA J. HUBBELL
Supervisor of Art, Ludlow Public Schools

IN TRIBUTE

Imagination, originality, creativity—these are but a few of the qualities which the students of Ludlow High School have noted while they worked with and learned from MISS IDA J. HUBBELL. Almost all of us have had the benefit of her able instruction at one time or another—some of us only in junior high school and others throughout their high school careers. Her patient help with decorations for class dances, with preparations for the Junior Promenade, and with the production of the Ludlow Lion has been a vital contribution to the success of our class. How can “Thank you” ever express our true feeling of gratitude? However, we the class of 1961, are honored to pay tribute to MISS IDA HUBBELL and to express the hope that her life in retirement will be as rewarding as she has made ours in school!

ADMINISTRATION

TO THE CLASS OF 1961:

We, the members of the School Committee, extend to you, the members of the Class of 1961, congratulations on your reaching this important milestone of your lives. Our sincere best wishes are extended to you for success in whatever field of endeavor you may choose after your graduation from Ludlow High School. We hope you have received from our schools, not only the educational skills necessary for future success, but also those traits of character which will make you good citizens and an asset in any community of which you become a part.

ADMINISTRATION

PRINCIPAL GEORGE E. RUSSELL—"A friend and sympathizer"

To the Class of 1961:

The members of the Class of 1961 have in their achievements made a lasting impression on the history of Ludlow High School, and as the Principal of the school I extend my appreciation for all that you have done to further the traditions of this school.

Your contributions in athletics to make Ludlow a name synonymous with high achievement, your diligence in your studies to enhance the school's name, and your performance in extra-curricular activities to exemplify good conduct—all of these have been most worth-while. Your leadership of the student body and the standards you set have made all of us exceedingly proud of you, and your fame has been spread by the members of the Visiting Committee whom you impressed so favorably during the Evaluation phase of our high school in your senior year.

Your yearbook serves as a fitting testimonial to your continued efforts and I for one will in the years to come, in reviewing the pages of this book, recall the very pleasant associations I have had with the members of this class. In your remembrances I know that you as individuals will look with satisfaction upon the things that you have accomplished as students. I hope that in your future successes you will recall the pleasant memories of the days at Ludlow High and consider that some measures of that success may be attributed to the background you received here.

My congratulations are extended to all of you for the fine record you have achieved, with the expectation that your future years will be just as successful.

PRESIDENT OF THE CLASS OF 1961

RICHARD J. KOLODZIEY

"He led with wisdom"

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Class of 1961

I should like to express to my fellow classmates congratulations on having completed a very successful senior year. Our road toward a successful high school career has been paved through the joint cooperation of faculty and student body. During the past four years, our class events—class dances, class picnics, the "Prom," our yearbook, and our Senior Show—have represented our ability to cooperate in getting the job done.

The years to follow will hold countless experiences and opportunities for all of us. I hope, fellow classmates, that each one of you will derive from these experiences maximum rewards of knowledge and wisdom, good health, and nobility of character.

In conclusion, I should like to say that it has been a great honor to have been president of a class, the members of which epitomize the best of what Ludlow High School is trying to accomplish intellectually, socially, and spiritually.

CLASS HISTORY

Abraham Lincoln once said, "Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation." Four years ago, the Class of 1961 was the new nation brought forth on the continent known as Ludlow High. Thus began the four-year struggle on the battlefield of education. To insure success, we elected the following to lead us to our first victory: Commander-in-Chief David Markiewicz; General John Cameron; Secretary of Defense Kathryn Bergeron; and Finance Director of Military Operations Ronald Wickman. The Field Officers were Alice Bojan, John Curylo, Barbara Kling, Antonio Palatino, William Podoski, and Frank Trybulski. Our first major campaign, "Moonlight and Mistletoe," ended in victory. A few months later, we again enjoyed the fruits of victory by winning the battle of "Hearts on High." We closed a successful first year with a Class Picnic.

Our second year saw us re-elect David Markiewicz as our Commander-in-Chief. His aides were General William Podoski; Secretary of Defense Anne Askew; and Finance Director of Military Operations Ronald Wickman. Chiefs of Staff were Gloria Chicoine, Carol Dansereau, Constance Kapinos, and Frank Trybulski. This year our plan of attack was victorious, as a result of the diversionary action employed in "Harvest Moon" and "Cupid's Capers." However, like any successful army, we had one defeat—the cancellation of the Sophomore Class Picnic.

We began our third year by electing Richard Kolodziey as Commander-in-Chief; William Podoski, General; Constance Kapinos, Secretary of Defense; and Ronald Wickman, Finance Director of Military Operations. Field Officers were Alice Bojan, Brenda Fidalgo, Dorothy Leschuck, Janice Phoenix, and Frank Trybulski. Again we enjoyed a victory based on the astute military tactics of "Witchcraft." The turning point for the Class of 1961 came on June 10, 1960, as we reveled at the never-to-be-forgotten "Twelfth of Never," our Junior Promenade.

Our final year in battle saw us elect Richard Kolodziey Commander-in-Chief. He was assisted by Robert Dvorchak, General; Constance Kapinos, Secretary of Defense; and Ronald Wickman, Finance Director of Military Operations. The four regiments were headed by Gloria Chicoine, Dorothy Leschuck, Janice Phoenix, and Eric Tyburski. "Moments to Remember" was our final military ball. To let the world know of the accomplishments achieved in this four-year struggle, we have collected our memoirs and published them in the 1961 edition of the Ludlow Lion, with the following in charge: Joyce Brunelle, editor; Mabel Barker, assistant editor; Sandra Kogut, business manager; William Phelan, art editor; Jane Pisarczyk and Margaret Warren, co-chief typists. To entertain our troops, the class presented the Senior Show, a "fabulous" success.

As we enter the final stages of our struggle and participate in the Junior Promenade, Ivy Day, and the Class Banquet, we realize that this struggle, fought on the battlefield of education, has not been in vain. This struggle has made us realize the worth of education, and these final days have certainly made us recall our glorious victories. Now we await the final review, graduation, where those who have fought here so courageously will receive their "Medals of Honor."

We, the historians, cannot expect many to remember what we have written here, but the victories achieved by the Class of 1961 will never be forgotten. As we were dedicated soldiers on this battlefield, so will the successes we have achieved make us victorious once again when we march forth to meet the challenges of the battlefields of the future!

CLASS POEM

There are memories we'll have forever
Of the deeds we did together,
Of the days spent as one,
Of the friendships that were spun.

Friends whose names we may forget,
But whose friendship was well met.
We talked to them about the life
That was grand—yet filled with strife.

Teachers, who our lessons taught,
Bestowed knowledge that couldn't be bought.
The great impression they have made
We're told will never, never fade.

The many pages that we turned,
The many facts that we have learned,
Will follow us throughout the days
As we all go our separate ways.

Now the time has finally come,
Although life's task has just begun,
To say "Good-bye!" to high school days
That we'll remember in numerous ways.

CLASS WILL

We, the members of the class of 1961, having proved beyond a shadow of a doubt that we are "the cream of the crop"; and knowing that our presence has enriched the quality of the student body, are about to depart from these hallowed walls. We trust that the following will be executed as we desire.

To our beloved FACULTY we leave—peace and quiet.

To the UNDERCLASSMEN, we leave fond memories.

To the JUNIOR CLASS, who are haunting us to leave, we give the front rows in assembly; how we waited for those seats of honor! (We were planning to leave the driver ed. car—but we didn't think it would last.)

To the SOPHOMORES, we bequeath a single sprig of ivy with hopes that if they start to nourish it now, it'll be ready in two years.

And to the lone, low, lowest underclassmen, FRESHMEN, we leave only the wonderful memories of ourselves. We know that simply having had the honor of sharing the corridors with such a magnificent class as ours is sufficient, if not indulgent.

Following is an itemized list of treasures bequeathed, willingly or otherwise:

PATRICIA APPICELLI wills to John Palatino her ability to get trampled in the corridor.

ANNE ASKEW wills to any future senior who can push hard enough her place in the lunch line.

MABEL BARKER wills to Pat Koral the swim flipper she wore for Pro Merito initiation just in case she is lucky enough to have to wear one.

SUSAN BASSLER wills to any girl with the ambition to become a duck—the duck walk.

DAVID BERNARD wills to Rich Henrichon the ability to choose better girls than the three in the " '60 Olds."

PATRICIA BOBOWIEC wills to Carolyn Martinelli and Elaine Jorge her ability to devour the school lunches.

ALICE BOJAN wills to her sister Betty her theme song "A Hint of Mint," and all the talcum powder she will need for her senior gym classes.

ANNE BOURDEAU wills her place in the MAD lunch line to Judy Kolodziej—if she can run fast enough to get there.

DENNIS BRUNELLE leaves to any up-and-coming senior his gym bag containing one pair of gym trunks, one moldy gym towel, a greasy pair of sneakers, and one empty tube of Brylcreme!

JOYCE BRUNELLE wills her original Betsy Ross flag, tattered as it may be, to the next D.A.R. Good Citizen Girl.

JOANNE BUSHEY leaves her place in the lunch line to Jeanette Hill, if she can run fast enough and push hard enough to get it.

JOHN CAMERON wills to Johnny Palatino and Robert Majka one set of used crutches and a place to sit in the trunk of a certain Nash.

LINDA CARDIN wills to Linda Graham, a notebook from each of her classes; plus a little common sense; don't use them for reference! You'll flunk!

LAWRENCE CELLILLI wills to any of Miss Saulnier's future students all the homework assignments he didn't do if they want to pass English.

GLORIA CHICOINE wills to any four talkative girls Mr. Patullo's and Mr. Boita's nicknames for them—"The Unholy Four" and "The A, B, C's."

VERONICA COBB wills to Faye Tatro her inability to get along well in gym, even though she has tried for five years.

JANET CONNOR wills to the incoming Freshmen the showers in gym.

JAMES COREY wills to Richard Stone and Barry Dias his ability to drive six to twelve junior girls home after the parties.

CYNTHIA COTO leaves to her sister Candy all the delicious lunches she didn't eat.

RAY COUTURE wills to anyone who wants it his ability to get Mr. Schube mad enough to throw him out, but laughing enough so that he can't.

JOHN CURYLO wills his ability to get along with girls to that tall, dark, handsome, curly-haired, well-mannered, poised, man-about-school—the one, the only John Palatino.

PETER CZAJKOWSKI leaves to any unsuspecting junior his seat in English 42, in the hope that that person may have as nice a time in that class as he has had.

CAROL DANSEREAU wills to all the future seniors that thrill of driving the school car. The Plymouth, that is!

GRACE DIAS wills her locker to anyone who can reach the top shelf.

DORIS DUBE wills to any fortunate underclassman, all her leftover detention slips.

ROBERT DVORCHAK wills to all Ludlow High students the opportunity to play under the supervision of the finest coaches in this area—Mr. John Kurty and Mr. John Hurley.

CYNTHIA ERB wills the long bus ride up Fuller Street to anyone who has time and patience to wait for Betty Barth to get dressed, hang up the clothes in the attic, catch the dog to put him in the closet, and who knows what else!

FRANK EVANGELISTA wills to Ronnie and Gus his ability to get away with murder in Mr. Schube's room and still get a B on his report card!

MARYANN GONSALVES wills to Dolores Gonsalves the enjoyment of eating the food in the lunchroom.

ALBERT GOODREAU wills to Robert Moore all the fun of his senior year with the hope that he will have as much.

STEPHEN GOSCIMINSKI wills his book "Excuses for Every Purpose" to Robert Carnevale.

ANNE GREGORY wills to her sister Colette the luck needed to live through Mr. Benjamin's experiments in Physical Science.

WALTER GRUVER wills to his brother Bob his ability to get along with Mr. Mullins regardless of the mood he is in.

ROSEMARY GUZIK wills her gym suit and moldy towel to whoever wants it.

RICHARD HOWES leaves his seat in Mr. Hurley's problems of democracy to Uncle Robert Howes.

SALLY HUFF wills to junior commercial students her ability to figure out Mrs. Cormier's bookkeeping.

JUDITH JACK WHITE wills to anyone who wants or needs it her ability to chew gum, do her homework, and answer Mr. Benjamin's questions all at the same time without getting caught.

IRENE FERNANDES wills to Jack Fonte her ability to kick a soccer ball and stub her toe every time.

PRISCILLA FENNEY wills to all girls in Miss Kudlic's gym class with her the "five minutes to get dressed" call.

BRENDA FIDALGO wills to Woody Wilcox and Alfred Houle these few words: "Houly, Houly, me no fooly, get that 'Rinso' out of schooly."

ANTHONY JARVIS wills to Woodrow Wilcox his seat in mechanical drawing with the hope that he has fun with the broken equipment.

CONSTANCE KAPINOS wills to Steve Trusz his favorite sodas: orange, grape, lemon, and lime.

MICHAEL KOCHANNEK wills to the juniors Mr. Kurty's unforgettable cry "OLD MAHASKA."

SANDRA KOGUT wills to Phyl Kozyra her ability to fail Mr. Boita's homeroom, of which she is not a member.

RICHARD KOLODZIEY wills his chemistry workbook to the person who "stole" it from him, so that his conscience will be at ease.

BILL KOSCHER wills to Bob McChesney his ability to kick field goals and extra points . . . in practice, that is.

NANCY LAKE wills to Martin Smith her love for French with hopes that some day he will be able to "parler francais."

JOANNE LEGER wills to future art students her collection of pamphlets on art schools.

DOROTHY LESCHUCK wills to Barbara Fijal and Phyllis Kozyra her ability to be the last one dressed after basketball practice.

STEWART LESLIE wills to Richie Henrichon the fine football jerseys which he borrowed in his junior year.

BARBARA LIBISZEWSKI wills to her cousin Janice, her shower shoes, with the hope that she doesn't slip on moldy pieces of soap in the shower.

STANLEY LIBISZEWSKI wills to anyone who wants it his ability to pass gym without lifting a finger.

JOHN LOPATA wills to Peter Paliki his air-conditioned gym sneakers.

LAWRENCE MADDEN wills his accurate wrist watch to any upcoming left-hander who wants to play baseball.

DAVID MARKIEWICZ wills his low-cut sneakers to Ann Saracino to aid her in her cheering uniform.

JOSEPH MARTIN wills his ability to get detention on days that he's absent to anyone foolish enough to take it.

NANCY MASTALERZ wills the gossip corner with the hot radiator in Mrs. Cormier's class to Corky Clark.

STEPHEN MASTALERZ wills to Tony Adamson, Mickey Szlosek, Dick Thompson, and Chester Hawryciw one more year of "tough" practices.

MARION MAZUR wills to Dolores Ann Goncalves her ability to run down two flights of stairs for lunch and cut into line—providing Mr. Boita isn't around.

JANICE McARTHUR wills to anyone who wants it her ability to catch fire in Miss Smith's cooking class.

MAUREEN McLEISH wills to any junior her ability to try to get an "E" in gym, a feat which for our gang was pretty hard, since we were always doing something wrong.

HELANA MIGACY wills to her sister Joan and her brother Bob her poor, mistreated leaf collection, providing they can convince Mr. Patullo to relinquish it.

MARSHA MINNEY wills to her sister Hazel the fun of the Junior Prom and the privilege of serving on the decorations committee.

CORRINNE MITCHELL wills to any new senior her ability as a new student to get lost and confused and still know that "you'll get over it."

JAMES MOORE leaves all of his English notes to anyone who thinks he can use them. Don't be too eager. They're not it!

HARRY NEY wills his gym clothes to Barry Dias, who always uses them anyway.

CAROL NOWAK wills her bookkeeping headaches to anyone who carries tranquilizers.

PATRICK O'NEILL wills to future seniors the hope of having a successful and well-financed class and the regret of having to leave their best memories behind them as they step into the future.

ANTONIO PALATINO wills his 1948 Nash Ambassador with overdrive to his brother John, so he can attempt to break his glorious record of transporting seventeen soccer players to practice, and in doing so, to wave to Officer Feicha as they go by him.

ROBERTA PAOLETTI wills to Anne Mongeon her ability to get a ride to school and still have to worry about being late.

RICHARD PASQUINI wills to his brother Ronnie his seat next to the window in Mr. Hurley's class, so that he can watch the pigeons on the roof across the street.

ROBERT PEASE wills to Twanger Moore all of his English notebooks—if he can pay the price!

ELIZABETH PETROLATI wills her seat in chorale to any junior who likes extra rehearsals and quick-singing concerts.

WILLIAM PHELAN wills to whoever needs it his ability to get along with Mr. Savoia in his math classes.

JANICE PHOENIX wills to Michele Alves her ability to "burn the candle at both ends" and still get average marks.

WILHEMINA PIANOWSKI wills to any junior girl, lucky enough to work in the office, the fun of having twenty papers instead of one going through the ditto machine at the same time.

JANE PISARCZYK wills to Mary Ann Kochanek her ability to beat Mr. Boita to the locker after lunch.

CHRISTINE PODSADOWSKI wills to Jean Saracino her seat in Mr. Hurley's problems class.

RAYMOND PROKOP wills his sneakers to Ronnie if he likes his toes sticking out about an inch.

MILTON PROVOST wills his ability to comprehend algebra to anyone who isn't planning to take it.

MARY QUEIROGA wills to her brother Joe her speed in shorthand with the hope that he can use it on the soccer field.

LOIS RAE wills the pleasure of driving the school car to Judy Kolodziej if she can stay within the speed limit.

GARY REYNOLDS wills to all the students in Ludlow High School a very enjoyable high school career.

DIANNE RICARDI wills to all the junior girls her ability to struggle through the corridors without being pushed, kicked, slapped, and almost killed before getting to the next class.

MAXINE RICHARDS wills her racoon coat to the person who dislikes it most.

JOSEPH ROBERT wills to anybody who wants it, Mr. Savoia's exciting class!

LORRAINE ROBERTS wills to anyone in the junior class her seat in principles of economics and a lot of luck. You'll need it!

JILL RODIMON wills to her sister Shirley her gym clothes and her seat in Mrs. Klempner's class.

CHESTER RYBA wills his seat in Mr. Schube's mechanical drawing class to Joseph Kaweck, an up-and-coming architect.

FRANK SACZAWA wills to Mike Walker, the up-and-coming Romeo of the junior class, his ability to smile twice daily at a certain good-looking and lovable English teacher in 207.

PAUL SALETNIK wills to Manuel Castro his gym clothes, which he is always using anyway.

RAY SALOIO wills to Martin Smith his ability to play the wrong notes and have Mr. Strohman blame someone else.

FRANCES SAMBOR wills to John Palatino all the fond memories of her senior year.

LUCY SAMBOR wills to Mitzi Makuch the joys and sorrows of being a senior.

LINDA JO SANFORD wills her daily parking space in front of the school to her brother Dougie and all the birds.

DENNIS SAWICKY wills his ability to take a shower to his brother David.

MARTHA SELDEN wills to Karen Hanson the ability, when there is a superlative lunch, to cut in and get ahead of the underclassmen in the lunch line.

BRIAN SMITH wills to his cousin Kenny his ability to get pushed into the girls' locker room.

SUSAN SMOLEN wills to John Palatino her height so that he can reach the top shelf of his locker.

THERESA SNIADOWSKI wills to Jackie Hope all the joys and sorrows of her senior year and all the luck that is needed to get along with the senior teachers.

MARIAN SOUSA wills to her sister Joanne her seat in Mr. Hurley's class and all the difficulties that go along with it.

GERALDINE STRYCHARZ wills to the majorettes, especially Judy Kolodziej and Karen Hanson, good luck in the coming years and the hope that they will enjoy their new uniforms.

ALEXANDER STUPAK wills to Bobby Majka his knack for forgetting school books in all his classes and finding them the following period.

DAVID SZABLA wills his good looks and charm to any junior strong enough to fight off the girls.

MAXINE TETRAULT wills to Pat Reynolds, Pat Walker, and her sister Eleanor all her moldy towels and shower shoes.

ROBERT TIBBETTS wills "Rots of Ruck" to Jeanne Blais if she takes "trig" in her senior year.

JEANNE TONDREAU wills all the games Miss Kudlic creates to anyone who wants them.

ROBERT TOWER wills the use of his gym clothes to anyone who wants them (the gymbag will be free also.)

JEAN TROMBLEY wills to Suzanne Bellisario her shower shoes.

FRANK TRYBULSKI wills to his sister Diane all the fun, knowledge, and extracurricular activities that he enjoyed during his four years of high school.

JEANNE TWAROG wills to Carol Megizsky the ability to endure the powder fights in senior gym.

ERIC TYBURSKI wills to Tony Adamson the ability to steal as many practice jerseys from Mr. Patullo as he did.

JOANNE VIGNEAULT wills to all the juniors who will be fortunate enough to have Mr. Hurley the ability to get him started on a different subject when he is in the middle of explaining something.

BEVERLY WALCZAK wills to Carolyn Martinelli her ability to look intelligent in Miss Brook's U. S. History Class.

MARGARET WARREN wills to Judy Kolodziej and her sister Barbara the ability to eat sundaes, banana splits, and milk shakes and not gain weight.

DONALD WHITE wills to his brother Dennis his seat on the bus with the hope that he can cause as much excitement as he did.

WILLIAM WHITE leaves his Southern charm to another Southerner, James Quimette.

RONALD WICKMAN wills all the excess money in the treasury to the next senior treasurer. Ha! Ha!

JAMES WLODYKA wills his ability to get along with the teachers to his sisters Suzy and Martha and his brother Joe.

LORRAINE ZIEMBA wills her best wishes to anyone who can find the answers to her 1001 unanswered "useless questions" in English 42.

We declare the above to be our first and only testament to date. We appoint Miss Florence M. Saulnier to be the executrix and administrator. We authorize her to carry out all bequests. Given in the executive chamber—Room 207 of the Ludlow High School—in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred, and sixty-one, and in the first year of our adulthood and freedom.

CLASS PROPHECY

As I, on the distant planet Woldul, gaze upon the ever-fun-loving, wonderful, lovable, party-giving present senior class of Ludlow High School, I foresee in the exhaust fumes from their modern driver ed. car that the following shall occur in the year of reunion, the year, 2000:

The class of '61 is enjoying its 39th annual reunion in the isolated crevices of the moon. FLASH! The notorious czar of the outer-world, FRANK TRYBULSKI, has just destroyed the planet earth with a multi-rocket attack engineered by ROBERT PEASE. Because the class of '61 are on the moon, these two men are the only remaining earthlings.

Through a unanimous vote, RICHARD KOLODZIEY has been elected ruler of the new colony, while ROBERT DVORCHAK is second in command. Their cabinet consists of: RONALD WICKMAN, Department of the Treasury; FRANK EVANGELISTA, Department of Justice; HARRY NEY, Department of Education; FRANK SACZAWA, Department of Guard-House-Lawying; CHESTER RYBA, Department of Inter-Planetary Relations; ANNE BOURDEAU, Department of the Post Office.

SUSAN BASSLER is editor of the major newspaper, News at Moonlight. PETER CZAJKOWSKI has just opened his first atomic-fuel station called "Pumpin' Pete's." DICKY PALATINO has started a continuation of the Double-D—The Triple-D, "Dazzling Dicky's Dairy." DAVID SZABLA is striving toward his first million with his "Smilin' Szab's Stores."

JUDITH JACK, BETSY PETROLATI, THERESA SNIADOWSKI, LOIS RAE, DIANNE RICARDI, JANICE PHOENIX, JOANN BUSHEY, ROBERTA PAOLETTI, MARSHA MINNEY, MARTHA SELDEN, and JANET CONNOR have just recorded a million seller, "Who Said, 'Diamonds Aren't a Girl's Best Friend?'"

STEWART LESLIE, manager of the Moon-Shine Markets, spends much of his spare time trying to console STEVE MASTALERZ, who has misplaced his Super-Duper Ray Gun.

JEANNE TWAROG has had the honor of having the first radio station named after her, "Talkative Twarog's Telecast."

WILLIAM PODOSKI has invented a new vitamin,

"Billy's Brain Builder." DENNIS BRUNELLE, multi-millionaire who made his fortune by hiding Russian flags sent to the moon, furnished his brain for experimental purposes—amazing results!

CONNIE KAPINOS has just opened her exclusive Anti-Radar Dress Shop, called "Connie's Casual Corner." The chief designers are BARBARA LIBISZEWSKI, JO-ANNE LEGER, and BILLY PHELAN.

RAYMOND SALOIO, RICHARD HOWES, JIMMY COREY, DAVID MARKIEWICZ, and DENNIS SAWICKY have been asked to entertain at the banquet featuring the unveiling of "The Statue of Mabel" in honor of MABEL BARKER, the first woman into space. In her hand, Mabel holds a book written by JOYCE

BRUNELLE entitled, "How I Almost Goofed and Got a 'B'."

"Pasquini's Parking Paradise" is owned and operated by RICHARD PASQUINI, who has recently purchased a section of land called "Veteran's Park for Moonmen."

PATRICIA APPICELLI has just published her first two books, "I Grew in Width Instead of Height" and "How It Feels to be Stepped On."

WILLIAM KOSCHER, star of the movie, "I Was a Teen-Ager for Thirty Years," is constantly being mobbed by fans. ROBERT TOWER is employed as his body-guard.

WILHEMINA PIANOWSKI, better known as "The Flower of the Musical World," will be the first one to perform at the newly built Opera House. On the same program will appear BRENDA FIDALGO, CYNTHIA ERB, and VERONICA COBB.

RAYMOND COUTURE has been given the task of keeping track of WILLIAM WHITE, who is accomplished at "borrowing" the goalpost at away football games and making his escape via a contraption known as a "rocket-bike."

IRENE FERNANDES and MARY QUEIROGA have recently been awarded gold medals for spirit shown at soccer games.

Pro-football player, ERIC TYBURSKI, is floating in space—it seems he kicked the football so hard he went into orbit!

A solid gold ticket has been awarded to SANDRA KOGUT for selling the most tickets to the opening of MARGARET WARREN'S stageplay, "I Led the Parade."

MAXINE RICHARD'S book "How I Faked Out Miss Kudlic When She Yelled, 'Showers,'" has been banned by the town's library committee consisting of HELANA MIGACY, JANE PISARCZYK, MARION MAZUR, and JEAN TROMBLEY.

ANNE ASKEW is employed in the office of Doctor JOSEPH ROBERT. DORIS DUBE and ANNE GREGORY were the first patients. Both were suffering from the shock of having scored one hundred runs each for BRIAN SMITH'S baseball team, "Smitty's Sluggers," as they toppled MILTON PROVOST'S team of "Provost's Pacers," managed by DOROTHY LESCHUCK.

CYNTHIA COTO and DAVE BERNARD, better known as "The Singin' Swingin' Redheads," have recently added a new member to their group, KATHY BERGERON, who, for obvious reasons, was unable to join the original duo.

Lawyer ROBERT TIBBETTS is soon to appear in court before Her Honor, Judge MAUREEN McLEISH to defend LARRY MADDEN, who claims he was going only one way on a one-way street. The case will be heard as soon as the Judge's secretary LORRAINE ZIEMBA returns from her vacation at GRACE DIAS' hotel, "Gracie's Garden."

ROSEMARY GUZIK, CHRISTINE PODSADOWSKI, PATRICIA BOBOWIEC, MARION SOUSA, and CAROL NOWAK have recently won universal acclaim for doing a perfect One-Two—One-Two-Three exercise.

When JAMES MOORE dived into an empty pool, the swimming champion was saved by that well-known model, SALLY HUFF.

LAWRENCE CELLILLI is manager of a travel agency called, "I-Tell-You-Where-To-Go, Incorporated."

MAXINE TETRAULT is in charge of the construction of a new telephone company to handle the calls of CAROL DANSEREAU, who owns the lonely hearts club called, "Dansereau's Dates Don't Disappear."

STEVE GOSCIMINSKI, DONALD WHITE, GARY REYNOLDS, JOHN CURYLO, and JAMES WLODYKA

all competed for the title of "Mr. Planet" but they all lost—some subversive member of the class of '62 bribed the judges so he could win!

The owner of the plushiest night club is LINDA CARDIN. The club is mobbed nightly because "Bubbles Bojan" alias ALICE BOJAN, is the star attraction.

The girls no longer have any worries because GLORIA CHICOINE has just opened a beauty salon named "Giggie Gloria's Salon." Her chief stylists are MICHAEL KOCHANNEK and ALEX STUPAK. Showing off their new space coiffures are JILL RODIMON and PRISCILLA FENNEY.

Dr. JOHN CAMERON has just invented a new type cast which will not hinder the wearer because it blends with that wearer. JOANNE VIGNEAULT, BEVERLY WALCZAK, and LORRAINE ROBERTS were his assistants. JOHN LOPATA was the first one to try it and commented, "It's out of this world!"

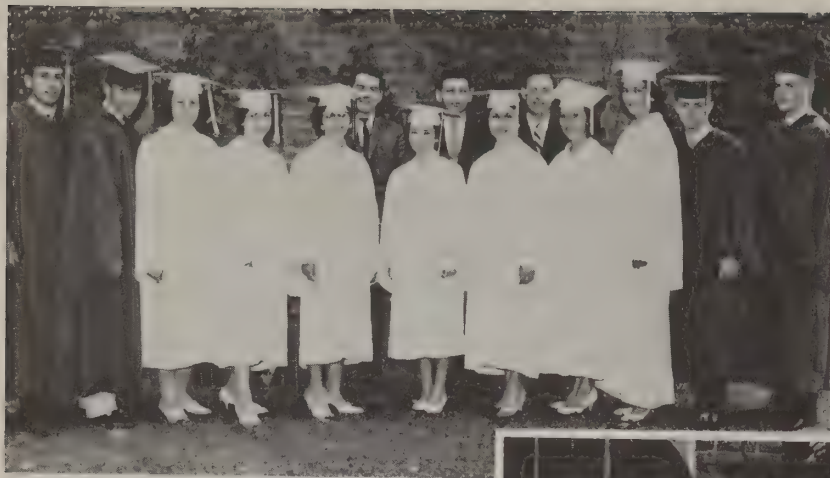

A new amusement park, "Goodreau's Goody Park," under the management of ALBERT GOODREAU is the newest moon fad. Enjoying the amusements are GERALDINE STRYCHARZ, JEANNE TONDREAU, and STANLEY LIBISZEWSKI.

The Sambor and Sambor law firm, consisting of FRAN and LUCY SAMBOR, are busily engaged in defending NANCY LAKE in her lawsuit against JOSEPH MARTIN and ANTHONY JARVIS. It seems they disrupted one of Nancy's socials when they insisted that RAYMOND PROKOP, the head butler, leave so they could start the poker game!

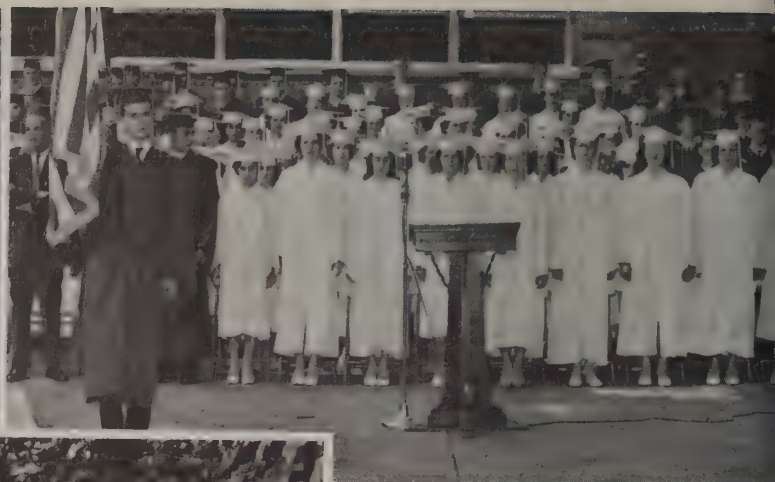

LINDA JO SANFORD is now teaching the newest dance craze, "Jo-Jo's Jumpin' Jive." CORRINE MITCHELL and SUSAN SMOLEN have already got the beat and never stand still. PAUL SALETNIK is trying to eclipse this dance with his creation, "Saletnik's Sassy Swing."

JANICE McARTHUR has inherited a yacht, but because there is no water on the moon, she has converted it to a candy store called the "Calorie Counter." MARY ANN GONCALVES and NANCY MASTALERZ rent the upper half of the deck for their flower shop. They've made a million by crossing a turnip and a rose!

And now, upon completion of this view of the future, I, GRENDEL, a goddess of the future, ride off into the wild blue universe; as I ride I see again in the crystal ball atop my electomic broom that the above events shall take place, as I have predicted, in the year 2000.
